GENRE & CREATIVE ELEMENT (ALL CATEGORIES)

- The contest creative element is "Representation" must be incorporated in the final film for all Shorts, and must be incorporated in the video pitch for Shorts. For Ultra Shorts, the theme is "What's in a name?" in the written pitch for Ultra Shorts, and written statement in the submission forms for Shorts and Ultra-Shorts.

REPRESENTATION (10 mins Shorts):

- This year's theme of VAFF is Representation and shines a light on the experiences of Asian Canadians unseen in the film industry, address the obstacles and barriers that need to be overcome, and share success stories of Asian Canadians to serve as inspiration for up-and-coming filmmakers. The idea of Representation for MAMM's creative element can be broadened to explore stories from all aspects of life, showing representation in identity, ideology, preferences, taste, behaviour, and more.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? (1 min Ultra Shorts):

- Elimin8Hate (E8) harnesses the power of arts, film, and media to educate, empower, and eliminate racism against Asian Canadians. In 2021, E8 launched "ReClaim Your Name" (RYN), a viral TikTok campaign in which Asian Canadians reflected on the barriers they encountered from their non-Western names (please see here for an example). This Summer, RYN will be relaunching to educate Canadians about the problematic othering of Asian names when programs such as Microsoft Word labels the names as misspellings through the "My name is not a typo" campaign.

As part of this campaign, E8 is proud to support the Mighty Asian Moviemaking Marathon (MAMM). The theme and rules are described below:

- Theme: "What's in a name?"- A name can reflect one's identity; heritage; relationship to family, friends, colleagues, community, society, and much more. Names can also evoke dualities and complexities as people navigate moments of growth, self-exploration, and conflicts in their life-time. This could be especially true for those who are Asian Canadian, of mixed ancestry, and gender diverse, for example.
- We ask that participants explore how a name (perhaps YOUR name) connects one to oneself and others, illustrates complexities, and is worthy of being celebrated. Please consider human names only.
- The provided creative element may be incorporated into the submitted film in any way, e.g. as a location, a prop, a motif; in dialogue, as a theme or part of story, and may be interpreted in any way and what it means to you e.g. an alternate or challenging perspective.
- This year, the 1 min. Ultra Short will also be judged by a member of the E8 team to ensure the creative element is well incorporated.
- The way the creative element is used, must be documented in the team's submission form and will be part of the judging criteria in the Pitch phase and final judging, based on:
 - How creatively the element is incorporated into the final film, and/or
 - How theme or plot-appropriate the integration of the element is in the final film.
